The decorators are hard at work at the Edgerton hotel and have made quite a transformation. The new name of the hotel is the "Empire Tavern".

LAC Phyllis Roberts R.C.A.F. W.D. and friend have been visiting at her home.

Mr. E. Fisher director of War Salvage was here last Monday. He informs us that waste paper is now badly needed and that the Sea Cadets of Wainwright have sponsored the collection of a car load of 20 tons. This is quite a lot of paper to be collected and it would be appreciated if any one having newsprint or periodicals and would pack them up in lots of about 30 lbs. and leave it at the Telephone Office we will see that they are taken to Wainwright, to help out on this work.

Maurice Byers arrived back from Edmonton with his brand new 1945 truck.

Mr. A. E. Bridges from the Provincial Fire Commissioners Office was here Thursday. He emphasised the necessity of a clean up campaign to get all rubbish cleaned up and burned. Let everyone take heed of this good suggestion, but be very careful that the fire started does not get away on them and be sure it is safe before night time.

EDGERTON RED CROSS CONCERT & DANCE SUCCESS

A variety of numbers, both comedy and drama were presented by the Red Cross on March 22nd, in Pawsey's hall which was filled to overflowing. It was a programme which pleased both young and old, and the artists deserve high praise for the time and effort put into making it such a success. Special mention should go to the decorating committee for converting the stage into a veritable "Kiddies Wonderland".

One really got the feeling that Circus Days were here again. We are glad the weather made it possible for Grace Snyder to bring her "Darkies" in from Browning to add their bit to the evenings fun. The evening resulted in the handsome sum of $155.00 being added to the Red Cross funds.

The total amount collected in the Edgerton District for the National Campaign to date is $1039.25.
